

Player Registration Protection

Protect your non-refundable sports registration fees.

What is Registration Protection?

Sometimes life happens - like an unexpected illness or injury - and families end up losing the non-refundable fees they paid for sports or activities. Registration Protection helps take the stress out of those situations by refunding up to 100% of your fees if the player can't participate for a covered reason. It's an easy way to add a little extra peace of mind when signing up.

How it Works:

When registering for a sport or activity, you will have the option to protect your registration fees at checkout. If your child can no longer participate for a covered reason, you can request a refund for the time they missed in just a few clicks by visiting: customers.vicoverage.com.

What's covered:

-  Season Ending Injuries: The athlete is injured (on or off the field) and unable to finish the season.
-  Season Ending Illness: An illness prevents the athlete from participating for the rest of the season.
-  Short-Term Injuries & Illnesses: The athlete is unable to participate due to an illness or injury during the season (on or off the field).
-  Job Loss or Relocation: A parent is unexpectedly relocated for work or loses their job, preventing the athlete from finishing the season.*
-  Active Military Duty: A parent is called for duty or reassigned unexpectedly, forcing the athlete to withdraw from the season.

What's not covered:

-  Pre-existing medical issues (from the past 90 days)
-  Personal schedule conflicts
-  Coach or team conflicts

*Coverage may differ for New York residents. Please refer to your policy.
